These meetings will count towards the required annual training requirements; so, please make every effort to attend these sessions. You have previously been given a schedule of events covering the period from January to June. This is the last work session; the next meeting will be held at the May regular meeting of council and will include a public hearing on the proposed drafted, updated Comprehensive Plan. If you have questions, please call Town Hall – 864-852-2225.
